

Section 5 - Fire Control

5.1 Bush Fire Brigades – Establishment

POLICY STATEMENT

The following Council Policy Schedules are adopted, and form part of this Statement –
5.1 – Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades areas

In accordance with the Bush Fires Act 1954 section 41(1) the following Bush Fire Brigades are established, and have the area as per Council Policy Schedule 5.1 Bush Fire Brigade areas –
Ygnattering Brigade
Cunderdin Brigade
Meckering Brigade

Section 43 of the Bush Fires Act 1954 BFB's are to elect a captain, a first lieutenant, a second lieutenant, and such additional lieutenants as may be necessary.

APPLICATION

Volunteers elected as Captian's of any Shire of Cunderdin Bush Fire Brigade shall also be appointed by Council as a Shire of Cunderdin Fire Control Officer.

OBJECTIVE

To define the Bush Fire Brigade areas.

STATUTORY CONTEXT

Bush Fires Act 1954 – s.41 – establishment and maintenance of Brigades

CORPORATE CONTEXT

Local Emergency Management Arrangements

HISTORY

Former Policy	20 December 2018
Policy Revision Adopted	26 July 2023
Revised:	24 September 2025

REFERENCES

The Cunderdin townsite is covered by the Cunderdin Fire and Emergency Services Unit, and is administered directly by Dept of Fire and Emergency Services.

Brigades are not incorporated organisations.